Dear Ms. Zierhut,

I was pleased to get your invitation to contribute to the Star Anthology.

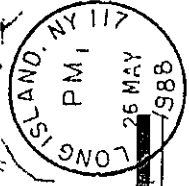

I'd like to write about the Scorpio sign, if no one has it already. I'm forming the skeleton of the story now. For such long stories (10,000 words) do you want outlines for approval? Or should I just send the completed piece when it's done?

Anyway, thank you for thinking of me. If there's any more background material on the anthology, would you kindly send it along?
